About Lacombe

Highway 12 & Highway 2 | Lacombe, AB

Highway 2 Commuter Hub

Lacombe, Alberta, is strategically located just north of Red Deer, along Highway AB-2, connecting Calgary and Edmonton. This central location provides easy access to larger markets while offering lower operating costs compared to bigger cities. Its proximity to Red Deer offers access to a skilled labor force, infrastructure, and business services. Lacombe has a supportive local government, incentives for business growth, and a diverse economy including agriculture, manufacturing, and retail. With affordable real estate and a high quality of life, Lacombe is an attractive spot for businesses looking to grow in central Alberta.

City Downtown Redevelopment Plan Receives $200,000 from Provincial Northern & Regional Economic Development Program

The city of Lacombe announced a $200,000 investment into the downtown area redevelopment plan from the government of Alberta's northern and regional economic development program and the funds will go towards priority projects, upgrading the downtown to make it more accessible, welcoming, and vibrant.

City of Lacombe Breaks Ground on $10.8 million Operations Facility

The city started construction on a $10.8 million operations facility in the Len Thompson industrial Park construction will be completed in phases and slated for completion later in 2024. The approved budget includes a $91,000 new public art project allocation that will be administered by the Lacombe art collection committee.
